

enter the smart house!

---

MyLogicConverter download, installation and conversion

MyLogicConverter makes any picture exploitable by MyLogic.
With MyLogicConverter it's possible to use your own photos to personalize your MyLogic and to enhance the screensaver sequence.

Minimum system configuration

a. supported operational Systems:

Windows Server 2003; Windows Server 2008; Windows Vista; Windows XP.

Processor: Pentium of 400 MHz or equivalent (minimum level);

Pentium of 1 GHz or equivalent (recommended level)

b. RAM: 96 MB (minimum); 256 MB (recommended level)

c. Hard disk: up to 500 MB of free space on disk

d. CD or DVD unit: not requested

e. Display resolution: 800x600, 256 colours (minimum level);
1024x768, 65.536 colours, 32 bit (recommended level)

Download

a. Click on MyLogicConverter link to start software download

b. Use the decompression software to extract the .zip file

c. Enter myLogicConverter folder

d. To start installation double click on the setup.exe file

Installation

a. Click on "install"

Conversion

a. Drag and drop one or more pictures in the area "drag here the pictures"

b. Click on "Convert"

Upload

Through the smart card move the picture or the converted images (.mli) from pc to your MyLogic.